Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]; [Act No. 14 of 2016]

3. Establishment of Commission and setting up of Divisions

(1) There is established for the purposes of this Act a National Human Rights Commission, which shall be a body corporate.

(2) The Commission shall not, in the exercise of its functions, be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

(3) There shall be within the Commission —

(a) a Human Rights Division;

(b) Repealed by [Act No. 14 of 2016];

(c) a National Preventive Mechanism Division.

(4) The Commission shall consist of—

(a) a Chairperson, who shall be the head of every Division; and

(b) 2 Deputy Chairpersons, each of whom shall be assigned to a Division.

(5) (a) The Chairperson shall be a person who has been —

(i) a Judge;

(ii) a Magistrate for not less than 10 years;

(iii) a law practitioner for not less than 10 years; or

(iv) a Magistrate and a law practitioner for an aggregate period of not less than 10 years.
(b) The Deputy Chairpersons shall be persons who have been law practitioners for not less than 5 years.

(c) In this subsection —

“law practitioner” has the same meaning as in the Law Practitioners Act.

(6) The Commission shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit and 2 persons shall constitute a quorum.

(7) Every Division shall consist of -

(a) the Chairperson, as its head;

(b) a Deputy Chairperson who shall be assigned to it; and

(c) 2 members with knowledge and experience in the relevant field.

(8) (a) The Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson and the members of every Division shall be appointed by the President, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, on such terms and conditions as the President thinks fit.

(b) Before tendering advice to the President under paragraph (a), the Prime Minister shall consult the Leader of the Opposition.

(9) Subject to subsection (10), the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairpersons and the members of every Division shall hold office for a term of 4 years and be eligible for reappointment.

(10) The President may, on the advice of the Prime Minister, remove the Chairperson, any Deputy Chairperson or any member of a Division from office for inability to perform the functions of his office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind, or for misbehaviour.

(11) Subject to subsection (12) -

(a) where any vacancy occurs in the office of the Chairperson by reason of death, resignation or any other cause, the Deputy Chairperson of the Human Rights Division shall act as Chairperson until the vacancy is filled;

(b) where the Chairperson is absent or on leave, the Deputy Chairperson of the Human Rights Division shall act as Chairperson until the date on which the Chairperson resumes his office.

(12) Where the Deputy Chairperson of the Human Rights Division is unable to act as Chairperson, the President may authorise the Deputy Chairperson of the National Preventive Mechanism Division to act as Chairperson.

(13) The Chairperson, any Deputy Chairperson or any member of a Division shall not enter upon the duties of his office unless he has taken and subscribed before the President the oath set out in the Schedule.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]; [Act No. 14 of 2016]

4. Functions of the Human Rights Division Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Human Rights Division may, without prejudice to the jurisdiction of the Courts or the powers conferred on the Director of Public Prosecutions or the appropriate Service Commission —

(a) enquire into any written complaint from any person alleging that any of his human rights has been, is being or is likely to be violated by the act or omission of any other person acting in the performance of any public function conferred by any law or otherwise in the performance of the functions of any public office or any public body;

(b) Repealed by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

(c) where it has reason to believe that an act or omission such as is referred to in paragraph (a) has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur, of its own motion enquire into the matter.

(d) - (g) Repealed by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

(2) (a) The Human Rights Division shall not enquire into any matter after the expiry of 2 years from the date on which the act or omission which is the subject of a complaint is alleged to have occurred.

(b) The Human Rights Division shall not exercise its functions and powers in relation to any of the officers and authorities specified in the proviso to section 97(2) of the Constitution.

(c) In the exercise of its functions under subsection (1) (a) or (c), the Human Rights Division may, where appropriate, refer the matter to the National Preventive Mechanism Division to enquire into the case.

(3) The Human Rights Division shall, in the first place, attempt to resolve any complaint, or any matter which is the subject of an enquiry pursuant to subsection
(1)(c), by a conciliatory procedure.

(4) Where the Human Rights Division has not been able to resolve a matter through conciliation, it shall, on the completion of its enquiry —

(a) where the enquiry discloses a violation of human rights or negligence in the prevention of such violation, refer the matter to —

(i) the Director of Public Prosecutions where it appears that an offence may have been committed;
(ii) the appropriate Service Commission where it appears that disciplinary procedures may be warranted;
(iii) to the chief executive officer of the appropriate public body where it appears that disciplinary action is warranted against an employee of a public body who is not within the jurisdiction of a Service Commission;

(b) recommend the grant of such relief to the complainant or to such other person as the Human Rights Division thinks fit;

(c) inform the complainant, if any, of any action taken under this subsection.

(5) The Human Rights Division shall, on the completion of its enquiry, send a written communication setting out its conclusion and any recommendation to the Minister who shall, as soon as practicable, report to the Human Rights Division the action taken or proposed to be taken.

(6) – Repealed by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

4A. Application by convicted person for reference to Court under Criminal Appeal Act

(1) Notwithstanding this Act, a convicted person, or his representative, may apply to the Human Rights Division, in such form as may be prescribed, for an enquiry to be conducted as to whether there exists sufficient fresh and compelling evidence that may satisfy the Human Rights Division that a reference should be made under section 19A(4) of the Criminal Appeal Act.

(2) On receipt of an application under subsection (1), the Human Rights Division shall —

(a) conduct such preliminary investigation as it considers necessary;

(b) determine, within a period of 30 days from receipt of the application, whether it will conduct an enquiry into the matter; and

(c) inform the convicted person, or his representative, accordingly.

(3) The Human Rights Division shall, without prejudice to its other powers under this Act, conduct the enquiry in such manner as it considers appropriate and shall, as far as practicable, complete its enquiry within 6 months from receipt of the complaint.

(4) On completion of the enquiry, the Human Rights Division may —

(a) grant the application and refer the conviction to the Court of Criminal Appeal in accordance with section 19A(4) of the Criminal Appeal Act; or

(b) reject the application, and shall forthwith inform the convicted person or his representative of its decision.

7. Investigation

(1) The Human Rights Division may, for the purposes of conducting any investigation pertaining to an enquiry, utilise the services of any police officer or other public officer designated for the purpose by the Commissioner of Police or the Secretary to the Cabinet, as the case may be.

(2) The officer whose services are utilised under subsection (1) shall investigate any matter pertaining to an enquiry held by the Human Rights Division and submit a report thereon to the Human Rights Division within such time as may be specified by the Human Rights Division.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

8. Protection of witnesses
Notwithstanding any enactment but subject to section 13, no statement made by any person in the course of giving evidence before the Human Rights Division or made by or to any person whose services are utilised under section 7(1) shall, where it is —

(a) made in reply to a question which he is required by the Human Rights Division to answer; or
(b) relevant to the subject-matter of the inquiry, subject the maker of the statement to, or be used against him in, any civil or criminal proceedings, unless he has given false evidence in the statement.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

9. Persons likely to be prejudicially affected

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where at any stage of an enquiry, the Human Rights Division —

(a) considers it necessary to enquire into the conduct of any person; or
(b) is of the opinion that the reputation of any such person is likely to be prejudicially affected by the enquiry, it shall give to that person a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the enquiry and of producing such relevant evidence as that person deems appropriate.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where only the credibility of a witness is being impeached.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

10. Protection of action taken in good faith
No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Commission or the Human Rights Division or any member or any person acting under the direction of the Commission or the Human Rights Division in respect of anything which is done or purported to be done in good faith in pursuance of this Act or in respect of the publication by or under the authority of the Commission or the Human Rights Division or of any report, proceedings or other matter under this Act.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]

11. Reports of the Commission

(1) The Commission shall, not later than 31 March in each year, submit a report on its activities and those of its Divisions during the preceding year to the President and may, at any other time, submit a special report on any matter which, in its opinion, is of such urgency or importance that it should not be deferred until submission of the annual report.

(2) The President shall cause every report of the Commission to be laid before the Assembly within one month of its submission.

Amended by [Act No. 19 of 2012]
