

The mission of the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) is to ensure that every person in Mauritius lives free from fear and is treated with dignity and respect.

When the civil rights of the most vulnerable among us are protected, the entire nation grows stronger, kinder and more united. Every time a silenced voice is heard and dignity is restored, Mauritius takes a step closer to becoming the society we aspire to be.

The NHRC strives to be a voice of hope, a shield of fairness and a partner to every citizen in building a future where human rights are not only safeguarded but also cherished as the foundation of a just, humane and compassionate Mauritius.

Me. Satyajit BOOLELL SC
